MONDAY

Free day in Eilat or Day In Petra (optional)

After visa assistance at the Jordanian Border, we'll drive directly to Petra along desert highways to the unique rose-red city of Petra built by the Nabateans (an early nomadic tribe). Renowned for its massive rock-cut architecture, pools, dams, and water channels, Petra is the legacy of the Nabateans who settled in the South of Jordan more than 2,000 years ago. The visit can include a short 700 meter horseback ride to the entrance of the Siq, which is about 1.2 km long (walking distance). There is a possibility to rent a chariot (extra) to get inside Petra and back to the gate outside.

Petra is famous for its huge monuments such as The Treasury, Royal Tombs, The Court, Roman Theatre, Roman Street, Qassier El- Bint (Palace of Pharaoh's daughter), and many other smaller monuments which fascinates the visitors. The city itself is almost 45 square km and is considered to be the second wonder of the world. After the visit, time for lunch in a good restaurant. After lunch drive back to Border. On the way, a short visit to Aqaba with the possibility to walk around. Then transfer to border around 18:00 PM, and then cross to Eilat.
